

California Department of Education School Accountability Report Card Reported Using Data from the 2015-16 School Year

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/fq/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians, and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

About Our School

The mission of Extera Public School is to ensure the academic success of children living in the communities of Boyle Heights and East Los Angeles. The school provides a challenging, motivating and effective education program built on the pillars of excellence, equity and engagement. Through a school theme focused on the natural world and the interconnectedness of all living things – human communities, plant and animal life, our living planet and beyond – children at Extera engage in “hands-on, minds-on” project-based learning that offers real world relevance, impact and self-empowerment. Science and social studies content are emphasized within the curriculum as foundations for learning about the world in which we live. Extera also provides after school enrichment and homework support until 6:00p.m. daily. Teachers, parents, students, and staff work together at Extera to achieve the school’s advanced expectations for students. Parents are encouraged to volunteer at the school, and school leadership works to make certain that all everyone plays an active role in shaping the school’s success. A longer school day and 195 days of instruction provide students with increased access to learning. The small school environment at Extera Public School ensures success for all students through personalized instruction, family support, and comprehensive student supports. A challenging curriculum provides the necessary academic foundation so that all children who attend Extera – irrespective of income, ethnicity, English language development, or environmental factors – achieve at their highest potential. The emphasis placed on project-based, constructivist education accesses the many different ways in which children learn and the skills and talents each child brings to the school community.

Our instructional program is grounded in effective teaching practices, hands-on experience, and individualized support for every child. Classroom projects, frequent excursions throughout the year, and community partnerships, combined with the dedication teachers, staff and families, ensure that Extera students are able to see themselves in the broader context of our living planet. Extera students learn to read and write at high levels and achieve academic excellence, physical conditioning, and develop curiosity about the world in which they live. Extera’s unique approach to education is what makes our school special. Each day our students explore and discuss important concepts about the world around them. They expand their thinking while building strong academic skills that will prepare them for the future. Additionally, Extera students participate in 8-12 field trips each year to extend the learning that happens within the classroom.

Our approach works! Extera students have made impressive academic gains over the past several years, outperforming neighboring schools. Extera students are fully engaged in the learning process, on track to become life-long learners.

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

- Statewide assessments (i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System, which includes the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessments [CAAs] for English language arts/literacy [ELA] and mathematics given in grades three through eight and grade eleven. The CAAs have replaced the California Alternate Performance Assessment [CAPA] for ELA and mathematics, which were eliminated in 2015. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAA items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with significant cognitive disabilities); and
- The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

Note: Mathematics test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The "Percent Met or Exceeded" is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard on the CAAs divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

Double dashes (--) appear in the table when the number of students is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

Note: The number of students tested includes all students who participated in the test whether they received a score or not; however, the number of students tested is not the number that was used to calculate the achievement level percentages. The achievement level percentages are calculated using only students who received scores.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement (School Year 2016-17)

Extera Public School places great value on the participation of parents in the programs and activities at the school. Extera recognizes the unique and critical role that parents play in the long-term academic success of their children. As a Title I school, Extera notifies parents of its written parental involvement policy in an understandable and uniform format, whenever possible in the language of the home. The policy is also available to the local community. Extera Public School involves parents by convening annual meetings to inform parents of the school's Title I participation, the requirements of Title I, and the rights of parents to be involved. Meetings are offered flexibly at both school sites, in the morning or evening, so that meetings are accessible to parents working different schedules. Extera parents are involved in an organized, ongoing, and timely way in the planning review and improvement of the school's program and services for Title I students. Parents who are members of the School Site Council participate in the development of the Single School Plan for Achievement and assist with the monitoring student outcomes. During Title I meetings and other parent meetings (i.e. Parent Information Meetings, Back-to-School, and parent conferences), parents of Title I eligible students receive information about Extera's Title I program, the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels that students are expected to meet. Feedback and other opportunities for meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate as appropriate in decisions relating to the education of their children are available to parents if requested. Parent participation as volunteers, in parent education workshops, and other events and activities is highly encouraged by the school.

Professional Development

Extera Public School utilizes a comprehensive assessment system to measure the ongoing performance of its students that includes the collection, disaggregation and analysis of student performance. Based on an analysis of student achievement data, Extera Public School has identified reading comprehension, vocabulary development, and support for English learners as focus areas for professional development. Effective teaching of the State's new Common Core Standards, particularly in the content area of mathematics, has also been a top priority for professional development at the school. Teachers and support teachers receive professional development during the days prior to the opening of school and weekly thereafter. Students are dismissed from school one hour early each Wednesday so that teachers can participate in professional development activities and continue to improve their instructional practice. Teachers also receive support and guidance during implementation from peers, classroom observations, and feedback from school leaders.
